

EKU Biological Sciences Fall 2018 Seminar Series

DATE	SPEAKER	TOPIC
Sept 7	Keith Wethington KDFWR	Mapping habitat using LIDAR and 4-band infrared imagery
Sept 10 MON	Dr. Julia K. Bohannon Vanderbilt Univ.	Enhancing resistance to infection after burn injury with toll-like receptor agonists
Sept 21	KBRIN Applied Stats Lab University of Kentucky	Common errors in thinking about statistics
Oct 5	Dr. Eric Battaglioli Georgetown College	Clostridiodes difficile exploits amino acids in the gut associated with dysbiosis in a subset of patients with diarrhea
Oct 19	Dr. Jon Larson University of Nebraska -Lincoln	Pollinator conservation in urban landscapes
Oct 26	Dr. Dwayne Estes Austin Peay State University	The Southeastern Grasslands Initiative: Charting a new course for conservation in the 21 st century
Nov 2	Tom Saielli American Chestnut Foundation	Early screening potentially blight-resistant American chestnut using small stem assays
Nov 30	Dr. Tony Stallins University of Kentucky	GIS-based analysis of biogeographic trends in wildlife rehabilitation records from north Florida and their human social dimensions